

Promotional Offers from our Tour Operators 2017-2018

Our club has two trips going to Vail Resorts properties this winter: Vail (Jan 6-13) and Whistler (Feb 3-10). (The full-feature Epic Pass might also be good for two days of skiing on our Jan 19-27 trip to Val d'Isere, France; confirmation from Vail Resorts expected in September 2017.) If you're planning to ski more than a week at any Vail Resort properties, whether with the club or on your own, you may find it advantageous to purchase an Epic Season Pass. Several of our tour operators have made promotional offers available to our members in conjunction with the purchase of an Epic Pass. These are ongoing promotions that will end when Epic Passes are no longer offered for sale by Vail Resorts (typically late October).

Note that pass prices are subject to change and typically go up as winter nears, so consider buying your pass as soon as your plans are firm. Before purchasing a pass you should review the benefits and restrictions on each pass product, and confirm the current cost, at Vail's website (snow.com). You should also consider whether you want the optional Pass Insurance (see details & cost here).

Sportours: Club members who purchase an Epic Pass or Epic Local Pass through Sportours and travel with the club on one of the following trips:

- Steamboat (Dec 26 – Jan 1)
- Snowbasin/Powder Mountain (Jan 14-20)
- Sun Valley (Jan 27 – Feb 3)
- Jackson Hole (Feb 17-24)
- Snowbird (Mar 10-17)
- Revelstoke (Mar 24-31)

... will receive a $75 rebate from Sportours. Note that none of these six resorts are Vail Resorts properties, and that an Epic Pass cannot be used to ski at any of them.

To take advantage of this offer, mail a check (credit cards not accepted) to Sportours, 121 Rainier Court, Suite 12, Princeton, NJ 08540. Specify which pass you want (Epic or Epic Local) and confirm whether you want the optional Pass Insurance (include payment with your order). If you're renewing a pass that you already hold, provide the Pass Number. Specify which of the above PSC trips you are going on, and include your formal name, birth date, mailing address, email address, and phone number(s). You may contact Effie Rubinstein (609-951-0007 or sportours@comcast.net) with any questions about the offer.

This offer is limited to one $75 rebate per person and requires that the skier's Epic Pass or Epic Local Pass is active (i.e., not cancelled) at the time of the scheduled trip's departure, and that you participate on that trip (i.e., you do not cancel from the trip due to medical or other reasons). You can expect to receive your rebate directly from Sportours approximately two weeks after the trip's return.

Winter Ski and Sport: Club members who purchase an Epic Season Pass through Winter Ski and Sport will receive a $50 incentive, taken as either a $50 Amazon.com Gift Card or as a reduction in the cost of the club's January 6-13 trip to Vail. To take advantage of this offer, mail a check (credit cards not accepted) to Winter Ski and Sport, 4949 Sabra Lane, Annandale, VA 22003. Specify which pass you want (e.g., Epic or Epic Local) and confirm whether you want the optional Pass Insurance (include payment with your order). If you're renewing a pass that you already hold, provide the Pass Number. Include your formal name, birth date, mailing address, email address, and phone number(s).

Specify which incentive you prefer (gift card or trip credit). If taking the gift card, you can expect to receive it by mid-November. If taking the trip credit, let your trip leader know that you have purchased a pass through Winter Ski and Sport; the $50 will then be credited towards your final trip payment. You may contact Dan Ellis (703-978-5355 or dan@winterskiandsport.com) with any questions about the offer.

Sports America Tours: Sign up for the club's Feb 3-10 trip to Whistler (the Blue Ridge Ski Council's Western Carnival) and purchase an Epic Pass through Sports America Tours and you will receive a $50 reduction in the cost of the trip.
