With the Option Two plan here are the standard reasons, you can cancel the trip before home departure:

1. You can cancel or interrupt the trip if you, your travel companion/s or an immediate family member are ill, injured or pass away. You can also cancel if you or a travel companion tests positive for covid provided you supply a test result with your name.
2. If a natural disaster occurs at your destination and you can't get there.
3. If a terrorist event is carried out by an organized terrorist group recognized by the U.S. State Department within 30 days of your departure date and within 100 miles of any city you are traveling to during your trip, as indicated on your original itinerary. The following condition applies; a. A terrorist event must not have occurred within 25 miles of that city any time in the 30 days prior to your policy's Coverage Effective Date.

Option Three: You can add on the "Cancel for any Reason" option when you buy Option Two. There will be an additional premium to pay. When you contact Travel Protectors, they will advise you of that price. The "Cancel for any Reason" must be purchased within 15 days of the first trip deposit. (Day one is the date you put down the first deposit).
